Experience

Gary has more than 30 years of experience providing a complete range of financial and tax consulting to businesses and individuals. Gary is a Certified Construction Industry Financial Professional (CCIFP), which is a prestigious designation from the Institute of Certified Construction Financial Professionals (ICCFP), a not-for-profit Corporation established to promote the highest standards of construction financial management through the advanced credentialing of construction financial professionals.

Specialty Areas

Gary's specialty area lies predominantly in the service, construction and distribution industries. Gary services construction clients that include general and specialty contractors and subcontractors. His service clients include professionals who support the construction industry as well as attorneys and other professionals.

He has advised and guided many clients through complex financing and business succession transactions. He has been instrumental in obtaining financing packages for existing and new business clients. Most recently, Gary assisted a newly formed Internet based service and retail product client for line of credit financing on a national basis. He also has extensive experience developing effective client profit enhancement strategies, and in performing due diligence reviews for lending institutions.
